MINNESOTA TECHNICAL GUIDE REVISION NOTICE NO. 105

Purpose. To issue a MN Conservation Practice Standard for insertion into Section IV of the MN-NRCS Field Office Technical Guide.

Effective Date. This notice is effective when received.

Riparian Forest Buffer (391) – This standard incorporates numerous changes to the National Standard. This is essentially a complete re-write of this standard.

eFOTG Directives. These revisions will be inserted in alphabetical order, under Section IV, C. Conservation Practices, located on the eFOTG website. The MN eFOTG can be found on Internet Explorer at www.nrcs.usda.gov/technical/efotg. From the US Map, click on the MN state and select a county.

All FOTG users, including NRCS employees, are responsible to check the eFOTG to ensure that they are using the most current version of technical material issued by the NRCS State Office.
